COLORECTAL CANCER AWARENESS DAY Friday, April 1, 2016 11:00am – 3:00pm

In an exclusive collaboration with the NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia University Gastrointestinal and Colorectal multidisciplinary team's top physicians, nurses, and health specialists, NYP/Columbia brings you the latest research and most relevant information on the conditions that affect you.

Join us for "The Doctor is In", a series of round table discussions, including brief lectures, followed by a Q&A session.

PROGRAM AGENDA

11:00am	Registration & Vendor Exhibits
11.000111	regionation & render Emilion

The Doctor is In:

Table 1	Colorectal Screening – What we need to know Richard M. Rosenberg, MD
Table 2	Risk Factors – Family history, genetics, diet & exercise Fay Kastrinos, MD
Table 3	IBD – what is the risk of cancer? How to minimize cancer risk? TBD
Table 4	Patient Experience: Talk with patients about their personal perspectives in their disease management Steven Lee-Kong, MD
Table 5	Nutrition: Diet and colon health TBD
Table 6	Ostomy and Wound Care: A conversation with experts P. Ravi Kiran, MD/Erin Testerman, RN
Table 7	Innovations in surgical technique: Talk to Colorectal surgeons to learn about the state of the art in personalized surgery Emmanouil Pappou , MD / Daniel L. Feingold , MD

You will have the opportunity to rotate to each discussion throughout the program. Round table discussions will take place on the half hour: 11:30am, 12:30pm, 1:30pm and 2:30pm